Paris, February 21.

THE Princeſs Ragotski, who came hither about five or ſix Months ago, died on the 18th Inſtant at Night of a Quinſy, after two Days Sickneſs. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Orleans, to whom that Princeſs was related, is gone into Mourning for her, as is alſo the Duke Regent. The Infanta of Spain will arrive this Night at Orleans, where ſhe is to reſt ſome Days, but the Day of her Entry here is not yet fixed; ſome ſay it will be the 2d, and others the 4th of next Month. The Night before her Arrival ſhe will lie at Berny, a Country Houſe of the Cardinal de Biſſy's, whither the Duke Regent will go to receive her, and conduct her to the Bourg de la Reine, where the King will meet her, and lead her into a Houſe belonging to the Sieur des Marchay, and afterwards his Majeſty will come back hither to receive her ſtepping out of her Coach at the great Stairs of the Tuilleries. The Balls which were deſigned to be given on that Occaſion, will be put off, by reaſon of the Jubilee, which will begin on Sunday the 1ſt of next Month, and there will be only Fireworks and Illuminations. The Chancellour and Dukes and Peers, have acquieſced with the Cardinals having the Precedency in the Council of Regency. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 18th of February, has been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

M. de Bernage in his Letter of the 3d of February, ſends an Extract of Advices from the Gevaudan. The 30th of January Alais had not had in ſix Days but one Maid-Servant and one Burier of the Dead taken ill. The 21ſt at St. Genaix one dead and one ſick. The 26th at Laurac one dead and three taken ill. Mende has ſtill ſome ſick. The 26th at Fontjuliers three dead. At Monrodat two dead and two taken ſick ſince the Quarantain began there. At Chauſſerans three dead and two ſick in eight Days. At Greze ſix dead and ſix ſick in nine Days. At Marvejols a Woman died on the 26th. At Bramonas one ſick. All the other Places have for a long time been in good Health. The Chevalier Damas, in his of the 2d of February, ſends a Letter from M. de Rothe of January 30, importing, that the Cevennes and the Gevaudan continue in a good Way, and that the Country on this Side of the Line is in perfect Health. There is no Want of any thing in thoſe Parts. M. de Rothe in his of the 4th of February confirms, that all goes well every where. The Biſhop of Alais writes the 2d of February, that none had been taken ſick that Day neither in the Town nor among thoſe performing Quarantain, and that the two preceeding Days only one Woman and a Child died in the Infirmaries. M. de Vieuſſens a Phyſician at Alais, in his of the 3d of February, ſends the ſame Account, and that there were 34 ſick in the Suburbs in a fair way of Recovery. M. Bernard the commanding Officer at Alais, writes the 30th of January, that the laſt Perſon who was taken ſick there had Tumours without a Fever, which had not been obſerved before, his Tongue and his Eyes were not at all changed, and the Phyſicians concluded the Diſtemper was on the Decline. 35 remained ſick in the Suburbs, and 56 were recovering. M. de Rambion in his of the 2d of February writes, that ſince the 21ſt of January no more than one had fallen ſick at St. Genaix. There was no Suſpicion of the Diſtemper on this ſide of the Line, from Rouergue to Auvergne. The Duke de Roquelaure in his of the 4th of February, confirms all the foremention'd Accounts, as having had them ſeparately from the ſeveral commanding Officers. M. le Bret Intendant in Provence writes the 1ſt of February, that at Alauch none have lately fallen ſick. M. de Launoy the commanding Officer at Pierrelatte, writes the 5th and 7th of February, that Dauphiné is ſtill in a good State of Health, and the Line well kept. He had been informed, that the Plague had decreaſed a little at Avignon, and that the Places which had been infected in the Comtat grew better likewiſe. It was reckoned that Orange had perfectly recovered.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, purſuant to the Power given them by the Act now lately paſſed in Parliament for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, &c. to raiſe Money by way of Lottery for the Service of the Year 1722, have appointed that the Contributors or Adventurers on the ſaid Act do pay one Moiety of the Sums which they ſhall think fit to contribute, into the Hands of ſome one of the Caſhiers of the Bank of England, (whom their Lordſhips have conſtituted Receivers) on or before the 28th Day of this Inſtant February, and the other Moiety on or before the 28th of April next.

Victualling-Office, Feb. 15, 1721.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy having received a Letter by the Penny-Poſt ſubſcribed R. H. do hereby give Notice, That if the Perſon who ſent the ſaid Letter will attend them at their Office, and make out what is therein propoſed, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement.
